

Interested in Fire Safety?

Our Student Membership is FREE

We're a non-profit, nationwide, member-based organization dedicated to fire safety in both college and university campuses and also off-campus housing. CCFS is the nation's leading resource for public fire and life safety education for college campuses. Our Members are Fire Marshals, Fire & Life Safety Managers, Fire Inspectors, Fire & Life Safety Educators, Fire Chiefs and their staff, as well as members from industry, associations and organizations related to fire and life safety.

And we now offer STUDENT MEMBERSHIPS.

- If you are in a fire science course
- If you are interested in Arson Investigation
- If you're an Architectural and/or Engineering Student
- If you are a Resident Assistant
- If you live on campus
- If you live in off - campus housing
- Or just if you have an interest in Campus Fire Safety, join our organization.
